Description

This three-bedroom townhouse in the La Marina area of San Fulgencio combines the advantages of a private house with the convenience of living in a well-maintained complex. The total living area is 99 square meters, the terrace covers 85 square meters, and the 241 square meter land plot provides privacy and space for relaxation.

The townhouse layout includes three bedrooms and two bathrooms, which is a comfortable configuration for a family with children or a couple who frequently hosts guests. Three bedrooms allow for organizing separate rooms for all family members or using one of the rooms as an office.
