Description

Townhouse in Pilar de la Horadada represents a spacious two-level house with four bedrooms, two bathrooms and a living area of 119 square meters.

Four bedrooms make this townhouse an optimal choice for a large family or those who often host guests. This number of rooms allows comfortable accommodation for parents and several children, organizing a guest room and a home office. Two bathrooms ensure convenience for all family members without waiting in queues.

The spacious terrace of 55 square meters significantly expands the living space and creates a full-fledged area for outdoor relaxation. You can place a dining set fo...
