Description

This new apartment in Bigastro spanning 61 m² represents an accessible option for those considering property purchase in Spain with a limited budget. The Parque district features a calm atmosphere and good level of landscaping.

Bigastro is a compact town in Alicante province, located in the fertile Segura River valley. The town preserves traditional Spanish character: narrow streets in the centre, a church on the main square, local tapas bars. Yet it has everything needed for comfortable living: supermarkets, pharmacies, medical centre, schools.

The apartment layout includes two bedrooms, one bathroom, and a 20 square me...
