Description

Buy an Plot Spain. Área de Rojales area — a plot of 9676 m² in the municipality of Rojales, Alicante province. This is a large land plot that provides wide opportunities for implementing various projects: building a villa with extensive territory, creating an agrotourism complex or long-term investment in land.

An area of almost 10,000 m² opens up opportunities unavailable on standard urban plots. Depending on urban planning regulations and land category, on such territory you can implement a project of a spacious villa with a garden, pool, sports zones and recreation areas. It is also possible to divide into several plots for de...
