Description

This penthouse in central Pilar de la Horadada is a top-floor apartment with two bedrooms and two bathrooms. The property spans 67 square metres and includes a dedicated parking space.

Pilar de la Horadada is a small town in the south of Alicante province, the last settlement before the border with the Murcia region. The historic town centre (Zona Pueblo) retains its traditional Spanish character: narrow streets, squares with a church, local bars and restaurants. Unlike coastal urbanisations, the atmosphere of an authentic Spanish town is palpable here.

The distance to the sea is 1,700 metres. The nearest beach is Playa ...
