Description

This bungalow in the Aguas Nuevas district offers a compact housing format in southern Torrevieja, positioned three hundred metres from the Mediterranean coast. The property spans 55 square metres with two bedrooms and one bathroom.

Aguas Nuevas is a residential area that developed over recent decades on the southern outskirts of Torrevieja. The construction is predominantly low-rise: bungalows, townhouses, and low-height residential complexes. This building pattern creates a tranquil atmosphere that contrasts with the densely built town centre.

The property status reads «ready to live» — meaning the unit requires no ren...
