Description

This three-bedroom apartment covers 75 square metres on the second floor of a residential complex in the Los Frutales neighbourhood of Torrevieja. The area has long been regarded as one of the most practical parts of the city for year-round living. Grocery stores, pharmacies, medical facilities, public transport stops, schools, and playgrounds are all within walking distance. The Mediterranean coastline is just a few minutes away, offering the convenience of seaside proximity without the constant bustle typical of heavily touristic zones.

The property is situated within a gated urbanisation with controlled access. This type of resi...
