Description

A refurbished apartment in Torrevieja, located just 10 metres from Playa de los Náufragos — one of the most well-maintained and popular beaches on the Costa Blanca coastline. This proximity to the sea is genuinely rare to find at this price point and makes the property stand out among available listings in the area.

The apartment covers 91 square metres of living space and features three bedrooms and two bathrooms. It is situated on the third floor of a residential building equipped with an elevator, ensuring easy access regardless of mobility considerations. The layout is functional and makes good use of the available space across...
