Description

The Centro district of Torrevieja sits at the very heart of this Mediterranean coastal city, offering immediate access to shops, restaurants, medical facilities, and the seafront. The neighbourhood retains the character of a traditional Spanish town centre while providing all the conveniences expected in a modern coastal city.

Living in Centro means stepping out of the front door and finding everything within walking distance. The central market hall, one of the busiest in the region, operates daily with stalls selling fresh seafood, fruit, vegetables, and local produce. Several supermarkets, including Mercadona and Consum, are loc...
