Description

This is a unique offer for those looking for their own home on the Spanish coast with a limited budget but unwilling to sacrifice quality and comfort. The townhouse is located in the quiet residential area of Torretas, which is valued by locals for its calm atmosphere, safety, and proximity to all necessary infrastructure. This area is ideal for permanent residence or use as a holiday home. Despite its compact size, the property has a well-thought-out layout including one bedroom, bathroom, and combined kitchen-living room. The property is in good condition and ready for occupancy. The townhouse is a two- or three-level structure, which is ...
