Description

Studio apartment in Torrevieja, Estacion de autobuses area — a compact 32 m² property located just 500 metres from the Mediterranean Sea coastline. The unit is in good condition and is sold unfurnished, allowing the new owner complete freedom to design and furnish the space according to personal preferences.

The layout follows an open-plan studio format, combining the living area and kitchen section into a single unified space. This configuration maximises the usable area of the apartment, making every square metre count. The property includes one bathroom equipped with standard fixtures. There is no elevator in the building, which...
