Description

This unique three-bedroom apartment spanning 67 m² in Torrevieja represents a rare offering in the Costa Blanca real estate market – three full bedrooms in a compact yet functional space. This property is ideal for families with children, investors, or those planning to rent the property to tourists. The apartment's layout is designed with maximum efficiency: three separate bedrooms provide personal space for each family member or the ability to accommodate more guests when renting. The bathroom is equipped with modern fixtures, while the living area with kitchen creates a cozy space for spending time together. Despite its compact dimensions...
