Description

A four-bedroom apartment in the heart of Torre Vieja offers a rare combination of space, location, and comfort. 164 square meters of living area are organized to provide each family member with personal space while keeping common areas spacious and bright.

The apartment is located in the Centro district, where all city infrastructure is concentrated. A walk to the promenade takes literally minutes, and around you'll find supermarkets, restaurants, medical centers, schools, and cultural facilities. Life here doesn't require a car: everything necessary is within walking distance.
