Description

An apartment in the heart of Guardamar del Segura offers a rare combination of comfort, proximity to the sea and well-developed infrastructure. The Pueblo district is the historic center of the town, where the authentic atmosphere of the Spanish coast has been preserved, and the housing stock is represented mainly by low-rise buildings with thoughtful planning.

This three-bedroom apartment with an area of 107 square meters occupies an advantageous position just 120 meters from the coastline. The layout includes three bedrooms and two bathrooms, which provides sufficient space for family living or receiving guests. The living area i...
