Description

In the heart of Torre Vieja, 500 meters from the Mediterranean coast, sits an 80 m<sup>2</sup> house offering a blank canvas for residential transformation. Three bedrooms provide flexible layout options for family living or home office integration, while the central location ensures walkable access to the resort town's infrastructure.

The property retains its original configuration and finishes, presenting an opportunity to adapt the space to contemporary comfort standards without the constraints of previous renovations. One bathroom and a storage room form a functional foundation that can be reconfigured according to current residential requ...
