Description

This bungalow in Orihuela Costa is situated in the La Zenia area, one of the most recognised and sought-after residential sectors along the southern Costa Blanca coastline, renowned for its well-developed commercial infrastructure and convenient position relative to major transport routes. The property is a triplex townhouse that has undergone a full renovation (reformado), ensuring that all building systems and interior finishes have been brought up to current standards.

The total area of the bungalow is 120 square metres, distributed across three levels. The home contains three bedrooms and three bathrooms — a ratio that provides...
