Description

An apartment in the central district of Torrevieja, a city on the Costa Blanca coastline in the province of Alicante. The property is in like-new condition and situated just 250 meters from the seashore. With a total area of 45 m², the apartment provides a compact yet functional living space in the very heart of the city. The central district of Torrevieja combines urban dynamism with proximity to the sea, making this location one of the most convenient for everyday coastal living.

The apartment layout includes one bedroom and one bathroom. The bedroom provides a private space for rest, separated from the main living area. The livi...
