Description

Torrevieja real estate in the Centro area presents this 2-bedroom apartment for sale, offering 65 m² of living space in one of the town's most practical and well-connected settings on the Costa Blanca.

Centro is the part of Torrevieja where daily life is close at hand. Shops, cafés, local services and everyday amenities are typically woven into the surrounding streets, creating an environment that suits both year-round living and extended stays in Spain. For British buyers looking at property in Spain, a central location often means less reliance on a car and easier access to the places that shape day-to-day comfort, from superma...
